The Contest of Defeated Candidates of Marion County Brought to a Sudden Close.

The Senatorial Fight in Illinois Slowly Progressing—Gov. Hendricks at Newark Jollification.

The Official Tale from New Jersey—Labor Prospects—Fires, Failures, Incidents, Accidents.

No Re-count.

INDIANAPOLIS, Nov. 25.—A re-count of the vote on the offices of county treasurer and county commissioner at the late general election having been demanded by the defeated republican candidates, the commissioners met to-day to begin the work. They found, on entering the room in the court house where the ballots are counted, that the boxes of three precincts had been carried off and the ballots in others emptied on the floor and so mixed up with the ballots of 1883 as to make it almost impossible to separate them. This will probably defeat the effort of the unsuccessful candidates and secure the official majorities of the present successful candidates, which were less than fifty.

Was it a Murder?

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The case of Captain Dudley and the mate of the wrecked yacht "Mignonette," who were tried on November 6 for the murder of the boy Parker, to keep themselves alive, and against whom a verdict in accordance with these facts was found, will be heard on an appeal by Lord Chief Justice Coleridge and three other judges December 4. The question as to whether murder was committed is then to be determined.

Agitate in the United Kingdom.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—The Times Shanghai dispatch says the action of the French has driven China to reopen the Tonquin question and it is asserted she will ask for English mediation. The secretaries of the prince assert they saw Captain Tournier, who negotiated the Tien Tsin treaty for France, make assurances in the treaty.

The Pekin correspondent of the Times telegraphs that the British minister to China is active and that the breach is widening between China and France. Tsung Li Yum is calmly confident of China's power.

No More Conferences.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—In the house of commons last evening Gladstone stated that the government had no intention of proposing a second conference of the powers in regard to Egyptian affairs.

A Peaceful Mob.

PORTLAND, Oregon, Nov. 25.—A Sprague, W. T., special says: "Sheriff Cordy has just returned from Davenport. When the mob caught sight of his posse they immediately surrendered and allowed the records to be removed in peace."

Fleeing From the Small Pox.

DONOLA, Nov. 25.—The British troops are moving on, to Handouk, twenty miles south to avoid the small pox which prevails here among the natives. There are rumors of an epidemic of cholera prevailing among the troops of the mahdi in Kordofan.

A Bold Charge.

LONDON, Nov. 25.—Rt. Hon. Lord Henry Thynne, conservative member of parliament for South Wilts, openly charges Rt. Hon. Joseph Chamberlain, president of the board of trade with having read affidavits in parliament containing a story of a riot which he knew to be false.

The court refused to grant an injunction to restrain the Great Eastern from sailing for New Orleans.

New York, Nov. 25.—Governor Hendricks remained in Newark last night after having delivered his speech in that city. He came to Jersey City this morning, where he was joined by his wife and the couple departed for their home.

The Two Princes.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—Saturday evening at the imperial palace after the dinner to the Congo delegates was over, Prince Bismarck had a long conversation with Henry M. Stanley in regard to the Congo.

An Austrian Rogue.

New York, Nov. 15.—Thomas A. Well, inspector of customs at Chicago, this morning in company with Special Treasury Agents Gray and Brackett of this place seized the goods in possession of Edward Morris, of Vienna, who recently has been accused of smuggling and swindling Chicago jewelers. The value of the goods seized is about $15,000. He says Morris' picture is in the rogue's gallery at Vienna where he was known as a burglar. The goods seized to-day are a forfeit to the government and are in the hands of Inspector Byrnes of the Chicago and New York detective service.

Hendricks at Newark.

NEWARK, N. J., Nov. 25.—The democrats had a great meeting of rejoicing last night. After the parade Vice President Hendricks spoke as follows:

"It is impossible for me to address you at length. I thank you, men of New Jersey, for the honor you have done Grover Cleveland and myself at the recent election. [Cheers.] I know no honor possible to be enjoyed by any man greater than that which is expressed in the confidence of the people, and there is no mode of expressing that confidence than the ballot in the box. [Cheers.] On the 4th of this month, New Jersey did express her judgment that we should be the chief officers of this country. The judgment stands and will stand forever, because enough of the other states have concurred in that judgment of the nation under the constitution of the United States. For the part you have borne in that grave and responsible work I express to you my sincere thanks and regards. To the Sullivan club, of the city of Newark, (a part of the arena club body) I desire to express my thanks in special terms. They have done to one who is dearer to me than my own life honor to-night. It was impossible that she should be here to receive this honor at their hands. They desire to express to her their respect and their regard for this banner, the beautiful banner that expresses our mutual love for Ireland. [Cheers.] Upon that banner is written by herself, Justice to Ireland, a sentiment that all men of all nations and kindreds of the earth ought to respect and honor. Justice to Ireland, that has given to England her bravest soldiers; Ireland, that has sent to this country of ours men who have helped to develop this whole land; men who have illustrated the virtues of civilization and of Christianity."

The Illinois Contest.

CHICAGO, Nov. 25.—In the Lehman Brand election contest, after a protracted argument in the federal court to-day, Judge Blodgett ruled that the ballots must be produced before the grand jury to be examined. The ballots, however, are to be canvassed solely with a view to ascertain whether they have been tampered with in connection with the vote for congressmen, so that the investigation is not expected to have a bearing upon the Lehman-Brand senatorial fight, except in the general way. The canvass begins at 2 o'clock this afternoon.

Brighter Prospects.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Nov. 25.—Harris Wolf & Co.'s mill commenced running on three-quarters time yesterday. The North Brittingham and Caryville, Mass., woolen mills will go on three-quarters time December 1.

WOONSOCKET, R. I., Nov. 25.—Notices were posted yesterday in the Globe Nourse and Societ mills, three of the largest cotton factories here, of a reduction in wages, December 8.

SPARTAN, Mass., Nov. 25.—The report that the weavers in Whittenton mills who left work on account of a reduction of ten per cent. in their wages would return to work because the restoration of old rates had been promised is entirely incorrect. The weavers go to work this morning, however, at the proposed reduction.

A Commutation of Sentence Wasted.

QUEBEC, Nov. 25.—A number of leading ladies, including the wives of ex-Judge J. T. Taschereau, of the supreme court; Hon. J. Langlois, mayor of Quebec; Senator Pilonier, Judge L. B. Caron and others signed a collective letter which was forwarded to Lady Langlois, begging her intercession with the governor for the commutation of the sentence of death passed on Mrs. Bonet, who stands respite until Thursday next.

Must Pledge His Own Honor.

BERLIN, Nov. 25.—The North German Gazette says: The duke of Cumberland will continue to be a determined adversary of the emperor and the empire in view of his intimate relations with the centre party. The government cannot consent to make Brunswick the headquarters of a Guelph policy or sacrifice the peace of forty-five million people to the particular interest of any one house, ancient or distinguished.

The Official Count.

TRENTON, Nov. 25.—The state board of canvassers completed the canvass this morning, the result showing Cleveland's plurality to be 4,352, the total vote being: Cleveland, 127,784; Blaine, 128,432; St. John, 6,155; Butler, 3,404. The democrats elected Greene, Redcock and McCadoo to congress. The republicans elected Hires, Buchanan, Phelps and Lohback.

A Big Bottle Found.

VIENNA, Nov. 25.—An iron safe in the late Duke Brunswick's villa at Heitzing, which was bequeathed to Duke Cumberland, was supposed to be empty. An investigation, however, revealed that, far from being empty, it contained coin and paper money to the value of $500,000.

A Chance for American Capitalists.

St. Petersburg, Nov. 25.—Russia has decided to construct a telegraph line from Askabad to Meru.

The Annual Report of the First Assistant Postmaster-General, and Other Notes.

WASHINGTON, November 24.—Washington Squire, governor of Washington territory, in his annual report says: The manufacturing industries of the territory have attained a highly gratifying degree of improvement, that of lumber has taken the lead. In many cases the Indians have engaged in prosperously cultivating the soil and it is believed that a system of allotting suitable tracts of land to them ought to be encouraged.

The case of the government vs. the Union Pacific railway company, in which the government claims a certain per cent. of the net earnings, and the railroad company claims the payment for transportation, came up in the court of claims to-day. Only preliminary matters were disposed of, and the trial will begin regularly to-morrow. If all the government claims are allowed they will amount to $1,700,000, but against this total the railroad company claims offsets aggregating $1,600,000.

THE POSTOFFICE DEPARTMENT.

The annual report of the first assistant postmaster-general shows that the number of postoffices established during the year was 3,414, and increase of 161 over the preceding year. The number discontinued was 1,260, a decrease of 361; a net increase of 622. The whole number of postoffices on June 30, 1884, was 50,017, an increase of 2,154. The number filled by presidential appointment was 2,323; the number filled by the appointment of the postmaster-general was 47,694. During the year 11,953 postmasters were appointed. The net increase of postoffices during the year is much larger than any increase for several years past. The increase was divided among sections as follows: New England states, 49; five middle states, 225; fourteen southern states and Indian territory, 1,070; ten states and six territories in the west and northwest, 707; three states and three territories on the Pacific slope, 3,104. The greatest increase in any of the states or territories was 156 in Texas. The increase in North Carolina was 126 and in Pennsylvania 124. The only decrease was in New Mexico. Comparing the number of postoffices in the different states the six highest on June 30 were: Pennsylvania, 3,340; New York, 3,122; Ohio, 2,707; Illinois, 2,167; Virginia, 1,882; and Missouri, 1,968. Of the territories, Dakota had the largest number, 337, exceeding the number in either Massachusetts, Maryland or South Carolina.

It is recommended that the free-delivery system be extended to places of 10,000 inhabitants, provided the postal revenues amount to $10,000 yearly. The attention of congress is invited to the importance of erecting buildings for postoffices in all cities of 20,000 inhabitants and upward.

The annual report of A. D. Hazen, third assistant postmaster-general, shows the total number of postage stamps, stamped envelopes and postal cards issued during the year was 2,166,180,396, and their total value $41,614,877. There was a decrease in the value of issues of ordinary postage stamps of $1,229,735. The total decrease in the value of all issued, including postal cards, stamped envelopes, postage-due stamps, and wrappers was $1,307,442. The weight of second-class matter during the year, not including free circulation within the county of publications, was 94,479,607 pounds, the postage on which was $1,889,692, an increase of $184,414 over the previous year. The whole number of pieces of undelivered mail matter received in the dead letter office, including 278,647 pieces on hand, was 1,843,090, and of this number 31,479 were misdirected. There were destroyed 2,539,477 letters; 17,513 parcels of fruit, cake, etc. Among letters opened, 13,022 contained money, and 10,014 drafts, etc. Of letters sent to foreign countries, 210,436 were returned as undeliverable. The total number of letters and parcels registered during the year was 11,246,545; the amount of registry fees collected, $957,059; an increase of $30,509. The loss of registered letters during the year amounted to 1 out of every 21,705 pieces mailed. This is the smallest average loss since the organization of the registry system.

Charged with Embezzlement.

LOUISVILLE, November 24.—There was a sensation created here to-day by a publication in the Boston Knights of Honor Observer, charging that Robert J. Breckenridge, late Supreme Treasurer of the Knights of Honor, is a defaulter for $16,000. Incidentally the same paper refers to Colonel Breckenridge as a rival Captain Kidd and other such personages. Numerous other insinuations and charges are multiplied together to fill out nearly half a column. In addition to its local report, the Observer speaks editorially of Colonel Breckenridge and arraigns him for being accountable for large sums of money to widows and orphans of departed brethren.

The Knights of Honor is edited by A. M. Cummings, who is on very intimate terms with General Sloat, supreme dictator of the Knights of Honor, and Colonel Breckenridge, as supreme treasurer. Colonel Breckenridge is in the city, and denies the charge, pronouncing the whole thing a tissue of falsehoods. Said he: "I have received money which has not been paid out. I was ordered by the chancery court to pay no more benefits after October 18, last and I obeyed the order. For this reason there is now a considerable amount in the People's bank to the credit of the Knights of Honor. The general opinion among members of the Knights of Honor is that the charge is not true. Colonel Breckenridge will sue for libel."

Murder and Suicide.

MEADVILLE, Pa., November 24.—A tragedy occurred at the village of Edinboro, Erie county, last evening. For the past two years or more domestic infelicity has made unhappy the home of C. B. Williams, formerly a brakeman on the New York, Pennsylvania and Ohio railroad, and a resident of Meadville. About one year ago the first separation occurred, when Mrs. Williams ran away under circumstances that cast a shadow upon her character, for which Williams, nevertheless, was doubtless much to blame. He recovered her, and they lived together until a short time since, when she again disappeared. Williams came to this city on Friday last and tried to ascertain her whereabouts, claiming that her mother and stepfather were instrumental in promoting the separation. On Friday evening Williams went to Cambridge, the home of his wife's mother and was told that they knew nothing of her hiding place, whereupon, it is said, he made threats that he would take desperate means if they did not reveal her whereabouts. Redmond, the step-father of Mrs. Williams, yesterday told him that he thought she was at Edinboro, about four miles distant from Cambridge, and just outside the Crawford county line, for which place they started; and while on the way, fearing that weapons might be concealed, Williams allowed Redmond to search him, and no weapons were found. Upon arriving at Edinboro Mrs. Williams was found at the Robinson hotel, where the husband is supposed to have pleaded with her to return to him, without success. As an excuse to obtain a pistol, he told her he was going up to the store to get her a pair of shoes, which he did, but he also purchased a seven-shooter, and returned to the hotel. Redmond, getting anxious to start for home, went several times to their room, and after some delay entered, when Williams, pulling out his revolver, commenced firing. Three shots took effect upon Mrs. Williams, and by a fourth shot he took his own life. Mrs. Williams is still living, but cannot possibly recover. She was married when but fifteen years of age, about four years ago, and a child of three years' left.

Two of a Kind.

CLEVELAND, November 24.—The Herald's special from Gambir reports that Mrs. Welker, living two miles from town, lay ill, and being a spiritualist, refused medical aid, but was persuaded to submit to treatment by a man named Burrows, who said that he was a medium, under the influence of the spirit of an Indian chief. Burrows said the woman was afflicted by devils, which he proceeded to drive out by beating her about the head and shoulders and otherwise maltreating her, in consequence of which she died last Wednesday. After coming to life once, he claims, after he had vanquished the devils, then he insisted that the evil spirits entered his wife and he beat her savagely, but without fatal effect. The house where Mrs. Welker died was locked and nobody permitted to enter it until Saturday, when his cousin, Dr. Welker, forced his way in and found the corpse stretched on a bed in a state of nudity. Unless Burrows proves to be insane he will be tried for manslaughter.

A Preacher Defends Himself.

INDIANAPOLIS, November 24.—The Journal's Logansport special has the following Sunday before election: "Rev. W. E. Louicks, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, preached against adultery and immorality in politics. Since that time the Pharise, a daily Democratic paper, has published scurrilous insinuations concerning Mr. Louicks' character, which were twice retracted." This afternoon's edition of that paper renewed the assault. Meeting Mr. Louicks, the editor, on the street, Louicks took him to task about the publication, when the former applied an offensive epithet to the latter. Louicks struck a violent blow, knocking him across the sidewalk and stood ready to continue the fight, but Louicks retreated. It is said that Louicks' congregation support him in his action.

Testing the Sectarian School Laws.

SALT LAKE, November 24.—The Gentile tax-payers begin a suit to-day to resist the collection of the special tax voted by the polygamists of the seventh ward. They allege that the tax is illegal and the school is conducted in the interest of the Mormon church by Mormon teachers exclusively. This is the first test case made in Utah of the sectarian school laws.

The Illinois State Canvassing Board.

CHICAGO, November 24.—An Inter-Ocean's special from Springfield states that the canvassing board met to-day and canvassed the electoral ticket except that of Cook county, which was found to be informal, being signed by only one member. The canvassing board adjourned till to-morrow, pending the decision of the attorney general.

A Temperance Movement.

COLUMBUS, November 24.—Large crowds of the anti-liquor element of Bladenburg, Knox county, made an attack Saturday night on a saloon man named Chapin. The proprietor was struck on the head with a stone and his skull fractured. All the liquor was thrown into the street.

Uncle Sam Wins a Suit.

CINCINNATI, November 24.—A verdict was rendered in the United States court to-day in favor of the United States against David H. Bailey, for $99,900, fees collected by Bailey as consul at Hong Kong, China, and not accounted for. Bailey made no defense.

West Virginia.

WHEELING, November 24.—Official returns from all the counties of West Virginia for president are now complete. The result is as follows: Blaine, 69,096; Cleveland, 67,327; St. John, 939; Butler, 810. Cleveland's plurality, 4,221.

READING, Pa., Nov. 25.—Allen Schewer, a wealthy iron ore operator and farmer, made an assignment to-day. Liabilities and assets not stated.

He Wanted Revenge.

MONMOUTH, Ill., Nov. 25.—This morning at B. F. O. Hubbard, the defaulting cashier of the First National bank, was leaving the court house, H. Thompson, from Texas, who sustained heavy losses by reason of the bank's failure, stood in an adjoining building and fired five shots at Hubbard from a 38 calibre revolver, none of which, however, took effect. Thompson was arrested and lodged in jail.

Fires.

New York, Nov. 25.—Fire broke out early this morning in an old house, embracing three buildings, 391 to 393 Bowery, in a tailor store, which did about $3,000 damage to the property. About twenty families were rescued from slumber by the cry of fire and unable to escape by the stairs betook themselves to the roof, thence they were rescued. The people suffered very much from exposure the night being very cold.

Importations of birds for the Christmas season are now heavy, since the pretty custom of giving song-birds for presents increases every year. This suggests the charming custom in Sweden of feeding the birds on Christmas day, a method of celebrating that might be adopted in other countries with pleasing results.

Ed Leopold, of the Barlow & Wilson band, lost a corset from the Temple opera house the evening of the performance here. Chief Diehl last night recovered the instrument from a German residing on Taylor street, who says he found it in a church yard. The horn will be sent to the minister who will handsomely reward the captain of police.

Under the title of "A Fortune Awaiting Some One," James Usher, a New York claim agent, writes THE SENTINEL that the vast estate of Sir Francis Blake is awaiting a claimant. The property is in Norfolk, England. This is probably the old game to get people interested in an imaginary estate and then play them for all the money they can command.

Ed Lang, a former foreman of THE SENTINEL job rooms, and his brother, Charles Lang, a noted tenor, are now residents of Cleveland. Ed Lang recently served a two years' term in the Ohio insane asylum and has entirely abandoned his convivial habits to be a man. His brother, Mr. Charles Lang, keeps a cigar and tobacco house and sings in one of the leading church choirs of Cleveland.

In the Ellison-Nickel-Pinto case the lawyers and doctors are discussing the germ and molecular theories. The germs are described as poisonous particles floating about in the air and discernible only under the microscope, which looms them up to the size of brick bats. People daily collide with millions of these germs, which some people would have us believe cause disease to assume a malignant form.

A HUSTED BEAUTY.

A Sweet Variety Actress, En Route to New Orleans, Applies to Trustee Guffney for a Pass to Wabash.

Yesterday afternoon the door of the township trustee's office swung open and a musical voice said softly, "Can I see Mr. Guffney?" The trustee, who is quite gallant, looked up to behold a bewitching little lady peeping at him, and Gust Laokenau stumbled over a cuspadore in his haste to provide the pretty lady with a seat. Soon the guest was ensconced in the office easy chair, her feet resting carefully on the bar of the blazing coal stove and a shapely ankle was exposed to view. There was silence for a few moments, until Mr. Guffney had arranged his white tie, and then the lady said: "Mr. Guffney, my name is Dolly Flower, an actress, from Toledo. I have had no engagement for some months and I desire to go to New Orleans, where business will be good during the World's fair. Won't you give me a pass west on the Wabash?" The woman spoke with the utmost kind of a wink and her sweetest professional smile, while there was a perceptible blush on her caldressed cheeks. Mr. Guffney handed the pretty creature a pass to Wabash and the special correspondent of THE SENTINEL there has been instructed to send us an account of the demise of the township trustee when the husted beauty steals in on him.

AFTER A PEDAGOGUE.

Residents of New Haven Appeal for the Dismissal of Samuel Resser, Whom They Severely Berate.

This morning a paper was filed with Supt. Jerry Hillegas, appealing for the dismissal of Samuel Resser, principal of New Haven public school. The complaint questions Mr. Resser's mental and moral character, accuses him of incapacity, using very bad language and the murder of English grammar. His violent temper is depicted and his total unfitness for the position is alleged. The charges, ten in number and as severe as the language permits, are signed by O. D. Rogers, president of the school board; E. B. Whitaker, secretary, and five other citizens of the suburban village. Superintendent Hillegas will give Prof. Resser a trial in the New Haven school hall next Friday and a lively time may be expected. The professor has employed an attorney who is now preparing suits for libel against the men who prefer charges against him.

Sufferers from nervousness, early decay, etc., if you value life avoid advertising doctors and medicines that act on the liver and kidneys. Be not deceived by the many bogus certificates of cures from paid or imaginary persons. If weakness of the sexual system is the cause of your distress, Dr. Guyon's Yellow Dock and Sarsaparilla will strengthen the parts affected, stop the drain, quiet the nerves, produce dreamless slumber and allow you to regain perfect health. It has cured thousands, and will cure you, for, by purifying the blood and strengthening every weak portion of the body it removes every symptom of distress.

Hardened Liver.

Five years ago I broke down with kidney and liver complaint and rheumatism. Since then I have been unable to be about at all. My liver became hard like wood; my limbs were puffed up and filled with water. All the best physicians agreed that nothing could cure me. I resolved to try Hop Bitters; I have used seven bottles; the hardness has all gone from my liver, the swelling from my limbs, and it has worked a miracle in my case; otherwise I would have been now in my grave. J. W. Morry, Buffalo, Oct. 1, 1881.

Poverty and Suffering.

"I was dragged down with debt, poverty and suffering for years, caused by a sick family and large bills for doctoring. I was completely discouraged, until one year ago, by the advice of a pastor, I commenced using Hop Bitters, and in one month we were all well, and none of us have seen a sick day since, and I was able to say to all poor men, you can keep your families well a year with Hop Bitters for less than one doctor's visit will cost. I know it."—A WORKINGMAN.

"None genuine without a bunch of green Hops on the white label. Shun all the vile, poisonous stuff with 'Hop' or 'Hops' in their name."

Latest Scandal.

It is currently reported and without a shadow of denial, that one of our leading merchants has adopted FREE TRADE principles in his business to the extent that he will not admit of any PROTECTION in the way of an excessive Tariff on his goods, and as a substantial evidence of his sincerity PROTECTS the consumer by entirely ignoring the tariff, and marking his goods at 20 per cent. below the customary prices for cash. This is the popular Boot and Shoe Merchant.
